Two Revolvers and 10 cartridges, Rifle and 10 + 1 Cartridges, Shotgun and 6 + Shells

April 1892 saw a Range war between cattle ranchers and nesters in Northern Wyoming. Governor Barber supported the cattlemen against the homesteaders. The sheriff of Buffalo (Red Angus) supported the homesteaders. The cattlemen had a list of men they wanted killed, hired a lynching party of cattlemen and gunmen. They attacked the KC ranch trapping four men in the cabin. Nate Champion, Rueben "Nick" Ray and two innocent trappers. One trapper went for water and one to find him, both were captured. Ray went to find them and was cut down outside the cabin. Champion pulled him in the cabin, where he died. The cattlemen set fire to the cabin and Champion was killed. Red Angus raised a posse that trapped the cattlemen at the TA ranch. The cattlemen were rescued by the Army Cavalry.

The Lincoln County Wars in New Mexico Territory

Stage 3

stage by Witch Doctor

Two Revolvers and 10 cartridges, Rifle and 9 Cartridges, Shotgun and 6 + Shells

The Lincoln County War was a conflict between rival cattle barons. Lawrence Murphy and James Dolan obtained a court order to seize horses of John Tunstall as payment on a debt. Tunstall refused the order and Lincoln County Sheriff, William Brady, formed a posse. Tunstall was shot in the head February 18, 1878. At Tunstall's funeral, William Bonny, aka Billy the Kid, swore: "I'll get every man who helped kill John if it's the last thing I do". Billy joined Tunstall's Ranch foreman, Dick Brewer, in the Regulators to hunt for Tunstall's killer, William Morton. On March 6, 1878, the Regulators caught Morton. Morton surrendered so his fellow deputy sheriff, Frank Baker, could return alive to Lincoln. However, on the ride back to Lincoln, Billy and another Regulator killed the prisoners, along with a Regulator that tried to stop them. Three weeks later, Billy and several Regulators holed up in Tunstall's store and ambushed the sheriff, killing Brady and one of his deputies.

Bell Starr, The Bandit Queen

Stage 5

Two Revolvers and 10 cartridges, Rifle and 9 Cartridges, Shotgun and 4 + Shells

Myra Maybelle Shirley (known as May to her family), aka Belle Starr, was raised in Missouri and Scyene, Texas. She knew the James Brothers and the Younger Brothers because she had grown up with them in Missouri. Belle had a strong sense of style and used to ride side-saddle with two pistols in her cartridge belts. She was a crack shot. She was married to Jim Reed, who became involved in outlaw gangs at the end of the Civil War, and was later charged with stage coach robbery. It was rumored she was married a short time to Bruce Younger. She married Sam Starr, a Cherokee Indian, and after Sam's death was known to have spent time with Jack Spaniard, Jim French and Blue Duck. These relationships kept her involved in crime. She was ambushed and killed on February 3, 1889.

Starting Position: Start standing at the front of the wagon with hands on the side not touching your rifle.

Staging: Two pistols loaded with five rounds each and holstered. Rifle loaded with 9 rounds and staged on the wagon seat. Shotgun is staged on the right table with at least 4 rounds on your person.

Procedure: Say "THE BANDIT QUEEN" and wait for the beep. At the beep pick up your rifle and engage the rifle targets in a double tap sweep from the left. With your ninth round engage the bonus target for a 5 second bonus. A miss on the bonus will not count, but it must be engaged or it will be counted as a procedural. Return open and empty rifle to the wagon seat. Move inside the building to the left table. Draw your pistols as required and engage the pistol targets starting on the left in a double tap sweep. Holster. Move to your shotgun and engage the shotgun targets in any order.
